SOCIETY CIRCUS LIKE REAL PERFORMANCE

Capital's Belles and Beaus Eclipse Their Professional Competitors at Benefit.

FUN AND FROLIC ON THRONE

Riding Club's Establishment Crowded With Elite of Washington.

Washington society "out-circused" all tts professional competiturs last night, when it produced and attended, "the greatest show on earth" for the benefit of the array Y. M. C. A. The affair was held in the large drill hall of the Riding and Hunt Club, Twenty-second and P streets north-Twenty-second and P streets northwest. For three hours merriment was furnished by the amateur performers.

The audience which packed the galleries and every nook and corner of the chib's quarters, was more than scod hymored and augmented the performance by its hilarious and jovial spirit.
George Oakley Totten, ir, assisted by Mrs. W. Finciair Bowen, Mrs. J. Preckinridge Bayne, John O. Evans, Capt.
William Mitchell, U. S. A., and Molvin
C. Hazen, was master of ceremonies.
Dr. Ryan Devereux was ringmaster and several of the performers were his young offspring.

Tournament First Event. medieval tournament, captained by Mr. Totten was the first event on the program. Needless to say, the middle ages were absolutely outclassed. The jousting was in true knightly form and

The knights were Lieut. Comdr. J. M. Enochs. Lieut. J. Na Greely. Richard K. Tyler. Sterling Stead and Thomas Morgan. Trumpeters were represented by Miss Margaret Howars. the Misses Scriven and Miss Wahl. Richard Crane and Lieut. D. M'd. Le Breton were the lieutenants, and the ladies were M'ss Ethel MacMurray, Miss Ruth Hitchcock, Mrs. D. M'd. Le Breton. Mrs. Dorothy Deeble. Miss Blanchard Scott, Miss Porothy Owen. Mrs. C. V. Wheeler, and Miss Margaret Breckinridge.

When the tournament was over the professionals imported from Ealtimore, or some other place; to aid the society performers made their appearemence.

or some other place, to aid the society performers made their appearance. Frank Boro gave a novelty wire-walking act, and S. Percy Oliver played the role of a real circus clown.

Miss Edythe Howard and Mr. Totten then gave an exhibition of tandem, each driving threes.

Police Dogs Interesting.

Miss Anne Tracy then brought forth her police dogs, which proved one of the unique and interesting features of the evening. These dogs, "Stonihurst Luchs" and "Stonihurst Boro," leaped an eight-foot fence and demonstrated how they could guard a prisoner. Walter R. Tuckerman was the prisoner.

A bull fight was staged, and there were no protests from the police. The bovine role was taken by W. T. Shen and Mr. Breckinridge. Dr. A. F. Honkins filled the role of toreador: W. F. Peckham and Thomas P. Morgan, Jr., Peckham and Thomas P. Morgan, Jr., Peckham and Thomas P. Morgan, Jr., capadores; J. W. Tomlinson and Douglas E. Bullock, banderilleros, and M. F. Stead and Wilson Haywood, picadores. A musical drill in which the following took part followed:

Miss Margaret Howard, Miss Edythe Howard, Miss Janet Harlan, Miss Myra Morgan, Miss Gerry Morgan, Mrs. W. Sinclair Bowen, Miss Ruth Hitchcock, Miss Margaret Devereux.

Trapeze acts by Miss Etta King and the brothers Maron followed.

Bareback Riders.

Bareback Riders.

An attractive performance was the exhibition by society bareback riders the following taking part, under the direction of Dr. Devereux: Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Ruth Hitchcock, Capt H. N. Cootes, Joseph F. S. Devereux;
"Uncle John," loaned by George H.
Russell; ringmaster, Dr. Ryan Devereux;
Miss Helen McLanahan, Miss
Ruth Donaldson, Miss Anna Hamlin,
Miss Margaret Devereux, Godfrey
MacDonald, Richard Davidson, Master
John Ryan Devereux; clowns, Rice and Bowen.

Then there was a Roman chariot race. Miss Anna Sinnott Devereux drove e chariot, and her brother. James S. Devereux, the other. Needless to say the young lady won, amid the plaudits of "assembled Rome."

A "greased pig" race furnished much merriment. A colored employe of the club abbreviated the fun, how Hugh Legare and George Oakley Totten, jr., then were pitted against William Littauer and Kent Legare in a polo contest. Mrs. C. C. Rumsey acted as referce. It ended in a tie. Deadwood Stage, Too.

And the whole affair ended in true circus form-with the Deadwood stage coach and Indians, cowboys, and the things relevant thereto. Rob-and the things relevant thereto. Robert H. Chapman directed the performance, and Thomas P. Morgan Jr., Lieut. J. W. Greely, Kent Legare Ralph Cofan. Julian F. Bishop, and John O. Evans took part.

Hawley Paints Travel Picture of Five Years Hence for Wana-

NEW YORK, April 5.-Redman Wanamaker has made public the letter rereived by him from Alan R. Hawley. president of the Acro Club of America. in which the executives of the organization pledge its support for his coming attempt to fly across the Atlantic Ocean in a new monster aeroplane. The let-ter expresses the fullest confidence that the project will be entirely successful.

"The Aero Club of America is highly flattered at the proof you have again given of your confidence in its ability to aid in this great undertaking and begs to assure you of its hearty cooperation and desire to assist in every way possible.

"To conquer space and time so thoroughly that the ocean becomes but span, one day's travel, is a wonderful thing indeed. The first year may see thing indeed. The first year may see only that one flight; the second year may see only five flights; but in the third year the flights may number fifty, and thereafter flying across the Atlantic will be as common as flights of squadrons of aeroplanes across the English Channel, which today, seven years after the first flight was made, are considered too common to be reported by the press. by the press.

"Spanning continents like railroads, bridging seas like ships, going over rountains like a bird—the aircraft bring the elimination of frontiers and the physical connection of nations. The placing of the order for this huge aircraft by you is a material sten toward placing American aero-nautics where it belongs—ahead of the entire world.

"From the standpoint of national defense your majoral balls agreement.

defense your project is also especially valuable, as it affords the possibility of a very important addition to our defenses. It is particularly commendable as you are paying for the
